EC6/3	Crwys Road. Infants.	School was closed from 24 th August to 5 th October for the following reason. After the Declaration of War against Germany ten schools were required for hospitals for wounded soldiers. Howard Gardens School was one required: the boys from that school occupied the building of the infants Department of Crwys Road School. This school was reopened in the building of Roath Park Infants School on 5 th October, - hours 10.45 to 12.12 and 2.25 to 4.0, working alternate sessions with Roath Park Infants School.	5 Oct 1914-23 Oct 1914	151
		Owing to the present Crisis and the occupation of the Crwys Road Infants School, the infants are now taught at Roath Park Infants School.	5 Nov 1914	153

		Alternate sessions are arranged for both schools, morning and afternoon and as a temporary experiment the arrangement seems to be working smoothly. The Head Teacher and the Assistants give considerable thought and care to the assembling and dismissal of the children and very little inconvenience arises.
		Weather warm – fires not begun – three fires have been lit for one day. Nothing less than sixpence is taken for the War Loan and on Mondays only, the former arrangement of receiving any amount on any day entails too much work and served no particular purpose as in the majority of cases no real earnestness was shown.	9-13 Oct 1916	170

		...Tues. 30th. Mar: Capt: The Rev. H. O. Barnett O.S.B.  Spent most of the morning in school. He very kindly had a chat with elder children about his experience as Chaplain at Ypres; and drew B.B. sketch showing position of Allies and the enemy, also spot where his brother Reginald (Royal Dragoons) was killed at the "Front". Teachers and children greatly appreciated Fr.Barnett's kindness as he is only recovering from frost-bite and water logging, and Fr. Barnett, as well as his brother Reg. Passed through the Stds. in this school. An account of Fr. Barnett's work, written by a soldier of Jarrow-on-Tyne was published a short time since and read in class and further excited admiration for his great heroism &amp; patriotism.	12 Apr 1915	260

		It is pleasant to record that quite a number of the old boys of the school are among those who are engaged in military service. The scholars are being encouraged to help week by week by their small contributions. The collection and sale of newspapers will it is hoped help the O of Wales fund. The teachers have contributed towards a "Teachers Bed " and they are shortly to be called upon to contribute a weekly sum to be paid through the local N.U.T. Assoc. Apart from the above matters the school is not disturbed by the war.	4 Sep 1914	272
