		his death; he was in his 24th year. In his belongings which were sent back to his parents, was found a letter addressed to the Head Teacher but had not been posted; this very letter was the last letter he wrote. Mr Evans was an enthusiastic teacher and was quite an expert in Nature Study. Nothing was too much trouble for him to take in order to interest his pupils. He was of a gentle and lovable nature, full of enthusiasm in all good works and was greatly esteemed and loved by both staff and pupils. On Thursday, 3rd June 1917 a memorial service was held at the Parish Church, Dowlais.
