		School re-opened today after the Summer Holidays. All the staff were present , with the exception of Mr Glyn Christopher, who joined HM Forces last week	1 Sep 1941	204
		I understand from my predecessor that he called at the Education Office concerning the staffing of the dept., and that he was assured an additional teacher would be sent here next week to replace Mr G Christopher, who joined HM Forces on the 28 th inst. Meanwhile, we must do the best we can to conduct this school in as normal a way as possible. There are only 92 children on books (this no. includes 6 official evacuees), and this small number probably accounts for the meagre staffing arrangement	3 Sep 1941	205-206
		If the staff has not been reinforced by Monday morning I shall have to make urgent representations to the Education Office, whose task in finding teachers to replace those called to HM Forces from Boys' Departments-I realise, is a difficult one	5 Sep 1941	207-208
		12 noon. I proceed to Education Office with object of discussing staffing difficulties with the Education Officer, and of trying to have a teacher transferred here to replace Mr G Christopher	8 Sep 1941	208-209

		(now with HM Forces). Mr Raymond Jones assured me that, since so many men teachers had been called up, there was little hope of any additional staff at Pontshonorton at present, but that he would bear in mind the difficulties under which the work of the school was being carried on, and send an additional teacher at the first opportunity. Though admitting the educational unsoundness of continuing different classes for instruction under one teacher, Mr Jones said there was no alternative
		Gave notice to boys and parents that the School Penny Bank system is to be discontinued in favour of a simpler system, i.e. purchase of War Savings Certificates using 1d and 6d stamps as receipts for deposits	19 Sep 1941	210

School did not re-assemble afterwards, the children being dispersed to their homes at 3.05pm	29 Mar 1944	256
		In order to cope with the addition work in receiving War Savings this week ("Salute the Solider"), Mr W Vernal has charge of Standards I and II. Miss Baker (Savings Secretary) is thus free to cope with the rather heavy task of issuing stamps and certificates. Competitions in drawing are being held in each class during the period preceding play-time on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Prizes in Savings Stamps (10/ in all allowed by the Education Committee) will be awarded for the best efforts	15 May 1944	258-259
		The children of the three departments assembled in the Main Hall of our school at 3.20pm today to receive Councillor Percy James (Chairman, Pontypridd Urban District Council) and Mr R G Jones (Education Office). Councillor James addressed the children and enlarged on the significance of the "Salute the Solider" campaign in Pontypridd, while Mr Raymond Jones presented the prizes to the boys and girls and infants who had been successful in the competitions. I was pleased to announce that Pontshonorton School Savings Groups had already Saluted the Soldier handsomely as follows-Infants, £415, Girls, £630, Boys, £747-15s-a grand total of £1792 15s.
