 : 30780, 2 July 1918, 7906/7 – T/2ns Lt Henry John Gales, MM RE – For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. During a trench mortar gas bombardment of the enemy trenches, a gas bomb exploded and filled the trench with gas. Realising that the gas would penetrate to the infantry dug-outs, he warned them to put their respirators on. Although he was gassed, he carried out his work and brought his mortars into action during very heavy enemy shell fire. Through his coolness, initiative and gallantry under the most trying conditions he inspired his men with confidence.
