Dublin. c/o W S Bering, Llanbradach – being no longer physically fit for war service.

Military character: Very good. A very good man served his country well and was wounded in its defence. Incapitated from the heavier work of a Baker but there are lighter jobs. Paresis of left arm and left side of face. Originated 9/8/1915 Dardanelles. Permanent.

27/6/1918 Pension while in Mental Hospital. This man's insanity should be accepted as attributable to service. He has evidently suffered, since discharge, from very severe pain.

Enlisted: 9/9/1914 Caerphilly. Wounded by shrapnel – a piece of shrapnel struck him while charging up hill, it hit him in the left side and face tearing open his cheek, fracturing his upper jaw, passing through his left clavicle, fracturing it and _____ about midway down the _____ in left side and injuring the Brachial plexus on route.
